

Interpreter

Seneca Park Zoo Society seeks three dynamic individuals to provide interpretive narration for daily trained animal demonstrations. Species to be determined, but past programs include sea lions, penguins and elephants. Interpreters may also be required to assist with stage show demonstrations and other educational activities, such as birthday parties.

Applicants should have:

- Strong presentation skills
- Experience with people of all ages
- Previous theater and interpretive experience are desired but not required

Applicants must be able to work about 20-30 hours weekly beginning mid-May and continuing through Labor Day. Schedule will include weekends and holidays.

- At least 18 years of age
- Able to lift 50 lbs.

College students and teachers are encouraged to apply. Hiring is dependent on proof of a negative TB (ppd) test within the last 12 months and a valid NYS driver's license.

Cover letters and resumes should be mailed or sent by March 27 to:
